CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to public records; revising provisions relating to the manner of providing copies of public records; revising provisions governing the actions taken by governmental entities in response to requests for public records; revising provisions relating to the relief provided for a requester of a public record who prevails in a legal proceeding; revising provisions governing the fees that governmental entities are authorized to charge for a copy of a public record; providing civil penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides that all public books and public records of a state or local governmental entity, unless otherwise declared by law to be confidential, are required to be open at all times during office hours for the public to inspect, copy or receive a copy thereof. Existing law also authorizes a person to request a copy of a public record in any medium in which the public record is readily available. (NRS 239.010) The purpose of the existing law governing public records, as stated in the legislative declaration for that law, is, in part, to foster democratic principles by providing members of the public with access to inspect and copy public books and records to the extent permitted by law. (NRS 239.001) Section 2 of this bill provides that the legislative intent is for such access to be provided promptly. Sections 2 and 4 of this bill make changes to conform with existing law which provides that, in addition to the right to inspect and copy a public record, members of the public have the right to receive a copy of a public record upon request.

With certain exceptions, existing law prohibits a governmental entity from charging a fee for providing a copy of a public record that exceeds the actual cost to the governmental entity to provide the copy. (NRS 239.052) Section 3 of this bill clarifies that the actual cost to a governmental entity includes such direct costs as the cost of ink, toner, paper, media and postage. Section 13 of this bill eliminates the authority of a governmental entity to charge an additional fee for providing a copy of a public record when extraordinary use of personnel or resources is required. (NRS 239.055)

Section 5 of this bill specifically authorizes the electronic redaction of public books and records. Section 5 also requires, with limited exception, a governmental entity, if requested, to provide a copy of a public record in an electronic format by means of an electronic medium unless the public record was requested in a different medium.

Under existing law, if a person requests to inspect or copy a public book or record or receive a copy of a public book or record which the governmental entity is unable to make available by the end of the fifth business day after the request was received, the governmental entity is required to provide written notice of that fact to the person who made the request and the date and time after which the public record or the copy of the public book or record will be available. (NRS 239.0107) Section 6 of this bill clarifies that the date and time provided to the requester must reflect the earliest date and time after which the governmental entity reasonably believes the public book or record will be available. If the public book or record is not made available by this date and time, section 6 requires the governmental entity to provide to the requester, in writing, an explanation of the reason the public book or record is not available and a date and time after which the governmental entity reasonably believes the public book or record will be available. Section 6 also requires a governmental entity that is unable to provide access to a public book or record within the prescribed time period to make a reasonable effort to assist the requester to focus the request in such a manner as to maximize the likelihood the requester will be able to inspect, copy or receive a copy of the public book or record as expeditiously as possible.

If a request for inspection, copying or copies of a public book or record is denied, existing law authorizes a requester to apply to a district court for an order permitting the requester to inspect or copy the record or requiring the person who has legal custody or control of the public record to provide a copy to the requester. Existing law provides that if the requester prevails in such a proceeding, the requester is entitled to recover his or her costs and reasonable attorney's fees in the proceeding from the governmental entity whose officer has custody of the book or record. (NRS 239.011) Section 7 of this bill authorizes a requester of a public record to apply to a district court for a similar order if a request for inspection, copying or copies of a public record is unreasonably delayed or if a person who requests a copy of a public book or record believes that the fee charged by the governmental entity for providing the copy of the public book or record is excessive or improper. Section 1 of this bill provides that if a court determines that a governmental entity willfully failed to comply with the existing law governing public books and records concerning a request to inspect, copy or receive a copy of a public book or record, the court must impose on the governmental entity a civil penalty.

Section 11 of this bill provides that the provisions of the bill apply to actions filed on and after October 1, 2019, which is the effective date of this bill.

RESPONDENT/CROSS-APPELLANT LAS VEGAS REVIEW-JOURNAL'S NOTICE OF SUPPLEMENTAL AUTHORITY

APPEAL FROM EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, CLARK COUNTY
THE HONORABLE STEFANY MILEY, DISTRICT JUDGE

Counsel for Respondent/ Cross-Appellant, Las Vegas Review-Journal

Respondent/Cross-Appellant the Las Vegas Review-Journal ("Review-Journal"), by and through its counsel of record, hereby supplements the Review-Journal's Answering Brief on Appeal and Opening Brief on Cross-Appeal and its Reply Brief on Appeal pursuant to Nev. R. App. P. 31(e). This Notice of Supplemental Authority is based on the Nevada Legislature's recent changes to the Nevada Public Records Act, Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.001 et seq. (the "NPRA"). A copy of the enrolled version of Senate Bill 287 (2019) ("SB 287") is attached hereto as Addendum A.

In the preamble to SB 287, the Legislature stated that the intent of the bill was, inter alia, to "revis[e] provisions governing the fees that governmental entities are authorized to charge for a copy of a public record." (Addendum A, p. 1.) As part of that revision, the Nevada Legislature specifically repealed Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.055, the provision of the NPRA which permitted governmental entities to charge requesters a fee not to exceed 50 cents per page "if a request for a copy of a public record would require a governmental entity to make extraordinary use of its personnel or technological resources." Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.055(1). (Id., p. 10.) Thus, governmental entities are no longer permitted under the NPRA to charge a requester "extraordinary use" fees.

The Legislature's repeal of Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.055 moots the central issues raised by Appellant/Cross-Respondent the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department ("Metro") in its Opening Brief at pages 24 through 36 and in its Reply Brief and Answering Brief on Cross-Appeal at pages 26 through 43. See, e.g., Personhood Nevada v. Bristol, 126 Nev. 599, 602, 245 P.3d 572, 574 (2010) (holding that "even though a case may present a live controversy at its beginning, subsequent events may render the case moot") (citations omitted). As set forth in the Review-Journal's Answering Brief (pp. 27-28), the actions of Metro have already mooted its appeal concerning the extraordinary use provisions of the NPRA. The fact that the extraordinary use provision has been repealed is relevant to the question of mootness—and whether this matter is capable of repetition, yet evading review (AB, pp. 28-19).

Therefore, the Review-Journal respectfully requests that this Court consider the changes made to the NPRA by the Legislature by the adoption and enrollment of SB 287, and specifically its repeal of Nev. Rev. Stat. § 239.055.

DATED this the 27th day of November, 2019.
